

Worship Team Musician

Ministry Description

January 2008

Purpose

To participate in the mission to make mature followers of Jesus by using musical gifts to provide a platform for genuine worship.

Responsible to

Worship Team Leader and Minister of Music

Description of duties

- Attend rehearsals on Thursday evenings on a rotating basis
- Participate in Sunday morning worship services on a rotating basis
- Come prepared for rehearsals – having outside practice
- Be on time to rehearsals
- Be an example of living a genuine worship-filled life even when not on stage
- Learning from those farther along in their skill sets
- Teaching those who need encouragement and guidance in their skill sets

Time requirements

Between 6 – 7 1/2 hours per week between rehearsals and worship service

Term

3 months – every time the worship team schedule goes out

Training and resources

- Worship Minister and Worship Team Leader will be available for consultation.
- Instruction/Interaction with other more skilled musicians
- Network retreats
- The many books on Jenni's shelves in her office

Qualifications, skills and gifts

- Adequate musical skill set (to be determined by Minister of Worship)
- Ability to read chord charts
- Ability to work as a team with encouragement and flexibility
- Being a teacher as well as a student of other musicians

Benefits to the Worker

Leading people to the Throne is a very moving and profound place to serve. Providing such a platform, with other team mates, not only sharpens musical skills and spiritual gifts, but opens up opportunity to encourage other musicians with their gifts and skills.